

ART MEETS WHISKY: Sebastian Krüger and LANTENHAMMER present the exclusive “Music Edition”

Four extraordinary single malt whiskies. Four iconic works of art. Only 300 pieces worldwide.

Hausham, June 2026 – With the new “Music Edition,” internationally renowned artist Sebastian Krüger and the LANTENHAMMER Distillery are presenting their first joint collector’s collection. Limited to just 300 copies, the collector’s box features four exclusive 350-ml single malt whiskies, each adorned with iconic portraits of Keith Richards, Amy Winehouse, and Slash. The artwork is rounded out by an exclusive single-cask bottling featuring a self-portrait by Sebastian Krüger, available exclusively as part of this collection.

The “Music Edition” combines the extraordinary art of distillation at the LANTENHAMMER Distillery with the unmistakable visual style of one of the world’s most famous artists of our time. The result is an edition for whiskey lovers, art collectors, and connoisseurs of exclusive rarities.

Four personalities. Four characters. Four extraordinary whiskies.

Each edition features a cask-strength single malt whiskey, carefully selected to reflect the character of the featured personality in its flavor profile.

The Keith Richards Edition features an eight-year-old single malt whiskey from a former Pedro Ximénez sherry cask, at 46.8% ABV. Pleasantly fruity, full of character, and with elegant depth, it embodies the timeless authenticity of the rock legend.

For the Slash Edition, a five-year-old single malt was selected that was aged in ex-Bourbon barrels and bottled at 51.2% ABV. Subtle vanilla notes, a pleasant smoothness, and a robust structure give it its unmistakable character.

The Amy Winehouse Edition combines a four-year-old single malt whiskey with an extraordinary maturation in a Gautier Twany port cask over 40 years old. Raisins, dried fruits, and subtly spicy notes, complemented by robust smoky notes, create a tasting experience that is as expressive as it is emotional.

For the Sebastian Krüger Edition, a four-year-old smoky single malt whiskey was selected that was aged in a former brandy cask previously filled with plum brandy. Dried dates, dark berries, and intense smoky notes give this edition its unmistakable character.

Exclusive precious metal closures as a tribute to the icons

Each edition is finished with a specially designed, high-quality antique silver cap that symbolizes the personality of the respective motif.

The Keith Richards Edition features a delicate guitar, the Slash Edition his legendary top hat, the Amy Winehouse Edition a classic stage microphone, and the Sebastian Krüger Edition an artist's palette.

These exclusively handcrafted collector's items lend each edition an additional tactile and artistic dimension, making them far more than just an extraordinary whiskey bottling.

Each Collector Box is one of a kind

The exclusivity of the "Music Edition" doesn't end with the whiskies themselves. Each of the mere 300 Collector Boxes has been individually designed and embellished with Sebastian Krüger's distinctive portrait.

Through expressive color compositions and striking brushstrokes, each box becomes a work of art in its own right. No two boxes are alike—each collection is one of a kind.

The combination of four limited-edition single malt whiskies, exclusive metal closures, and a custom-designed Collector Box gives the "Music Edition" an exceptional standing in the international luxury and collectors' market.

"With the Music Edition, we wanted to create something that people would not only enjoy but also cherish for a lifetime. Art and whiskey share many similarities: personality, maturity, and the ability to tell stories," explain Sebastian Krüger and his wife Andrea Faustmann.

For the LANTENHAMMER Distillery, too, this collaboration marks a special milestone.

"This collection brings together two forms of living craftsmanship. Together with Sebastian Krüger, we've created an edition that uniquely showcases our passion for quality, authenticity, and individuality," explains Tobias Maier, managing director of the LANTENHAMMER Distillery.

The Sebastian Krüger Collector's Collection comprises four exclusive 350-ml single malt whiskies and will be available starting in July 2026 exclusively through select, hand-picked specialty retailers, at the LANTENHAMMER Distillery in Hausham, and the LANTENHAMMER online store. The suggested retail price is 599.90 euros.

Due to the strictly limited edition of only 300 bottles, pre-orders are being accepted starting now.
